Junior Wing

Volume 03

January - April 2019

We have come to the end of another academic year. The last few months were dotted with a plethora of academic and non academic events, activities, celebrations and learning experiences. The last volume of Setu 2018-19 is here to give you a glimpse of the events and activities our Shishyans participated in.

Annual Events - Anugoonj & Pratibimb

Anugoonj saw the participation of around 750 students from Sr. KG to Class V. The programme was a cornucopia of talent and colour. It comprised the vandana, malakhamb, the English plays Stone Soup and Planet Explorers, a dance drama The Giving Tree, the mime, a group song and the Hindi plays Rashmirathi and Arth ka Anarth. The enchanting folk dances and the western dances, as usual, filled the atmosphere with joy. The show was anchored by the students of Class V which added a delightful dimension to the evening.

The Shishukunj
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

The Shishyans and educators of the junior wing put up the exhibition Pratibimb which included around 860 students from Sr. KG to Class V. It was a spectacular event through which the students presented their knowledge in an interactive and creative manner. The exhibits truly contributed to the aesthetic ambience of the junior school. Besides the academic displays of the various subjects, the highlights of Pratibimb 2018-19 were:

- the model of a Green Sustainable City - an exhibition of plants with medicinal values
- Yoga postures for relief from common ailments
- the life of early humans in the stone age
- the agricultural practices followed in our country
- street plays (nukkad naataks)
- the game show Kaun Banega Vidyapati
- Ab Hai Naya Zamana which focused on new and exciting endings of age old stories
- live performances in the form of songs, stories and role plays
- a host of thrilling games by all the departments
- Handistaan - the exhibition of creative craft items
- the vibrant displays of the Art & Clay department

In order to provide a break from routine activities, an exhilarating adventure camp Saahas was organized for the students of Classes II - V. The camp aimed at helping our Shishyans to build team spirit, friendship and trust through a multitude of familiar and unfamiliar activities.

Grand Assemblies - Class II

Apart from the usual performances of the students, the assemblies of Class II included stories which were narrated by educators.

Anokha Ilaaj was a humorous story which talked about the importance of staying fit.

The Shishyans of II B sang All things Bright and Beautiful while a story on obedience was narrated by their educator.

There was another story to sensitize students about the harmful effects of over exposure to electronic gadgets. A video was also shown to reinforce the underlying message.

The little ones of II H welcomed the spring season through their song Spring is Here. The story of Holika and Hiranyakashyap was narrated by their Hindi educator while their English educator shared wonderful ways of celebrating Holi - in an eco-friendly way!

The children of II C performed a skit which conveyed the message as you sow, so shall you reap. They also sang the song Over in the Meadow.

The students of II E sang She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain while their educator narrated a story on the importance of respecting elders and following their advices.

Glimpses of Quizdom (Classes I - IV)

Kaleidoscope (Sr. KG to Class II)

Through this exciting event, the children got an opportunity to participate in the activity of their choice. Card Making, Best out of Waste, Rangoli Making, Origami, Ikebana, Flameless Cooking and Jewellery Making were the options to choose from. Here's a sneak peek of our little experts at work.

Class Assemblies - Classes III-V

The students of III B, III E, III F and IV F chose Mahashivratri, the harvest festivals, the Goa Carnival and Martyrs' Day as the themes of their assembly presentation.

The students of IV F presented a skit in Hindi based on Mahashivratri. They clearly brought out the message that we can please God through our honesty and sincerity towards our work rather than by praying for long hours, visiting temples or fasting.

The vibrant dancers of III B gave the audience the feel of the Goa carnival through their lively and well-coordinated dance Maria Pitashi.

The Shishyans of III E expressed their gratitude to the scarecrow through their melodious song Mera Tesu Yehi Khada. The song emphasized on the role of scarecrows on the fields.

In order to commemorate Shaheed Diwas, the students of III F performed an energetic dance Veer Bhagat Singh to pay a tribute to Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev and Rajguru.

Class Assemblies - Classes III-V

The theme of the assembly presentation of Classes III C, IV D and IV E was Holi - the festival of colours while III G presented an English skit based on the great warrior king Shivaji.

The students of III C began the presentation with their jokes titled Hassgulle which tickled the funny bone of the Shishyans. Their small presentations were used as fillers which filled the auditorium with peals of laughter. The little singers of III C also presented a song on Holi.

The melodious singers of IV E sang praises to Lord Krishna.

The lively dancers of IV D captivated the audience with their breathtaking dance moves, impersonating Shri Krishna and the gopis.

The skit by the confident actors of III G was based on an incident from Shivaji Maharaj's life which depicted the respect he bestowed on people who were brave and truthful. Thereafter, the graceful dancers of III G paid homage to this great Maratha leader through their dance performance Jai Shivaji.

Time to celebrate the good times!

Tiffin Party

Fun... Food... Sharing the joy of togetherness... This was the underlying theme of the tiffin party that marked the last day of the session for the Shishyans of Class V. It was a memorable morning for them and their educators as they shared their fondest experiences of the junior wing and excitedly discussed their expectations and plans for the next year over scrumptious snacks.

Farewell, dear children of Class V!

Teacher Enrichment Programmes

The month of April had two workshops lined up for our educators. Mr. P. N Santosh from Telangana gave us an insight into effective classroom management. He is an expert in training and development and serves Tata Class Edge as the General Manager for Operations & Sales.

Dr. Shailendra Gupta from Ahmedabad conducted a workshop on integrating life skills in the curriculum. He has more than 25 years of experience in education and human resource development.
