Junior Wing

Volume 03

January - April 2018

Session 2017-18 has come to the end and our junior wing Shishyans are enjoying their summer break. The last few months were interspersed with an array of academic and non academic events, activities, celebrations and learning experiences. Through regular grooming of students at all levels, the school endeavours to hone their skills, thereby tapping their potential in the best possible manner. The last volume of Setu 2017-18 is here to give you a glimpse of the events and activities our Shishyans participated in.

Events in Kindergarten

Our youngest group of Shishyans of Sr. KG Green danced to the tunes of a folk song on Lohri while the students of Sr. KG White enlivened the atmosphere with a folk dance on Sankranti.

The little ones of Sr. KG Purple and Sr. KG Orange performed on the foot tapping music of Happy Boys and Happy Girls and Reach up High.

Events in Class I

I A - The children recited a poem on air. An informative video on air captured the attention of the children. Their lively dance performance on the song Goodbye was appreciated by everyone present in the hall.

I B - The students had fun asking riddles in English and in Hindi. The song 'Bachpan' sung by them was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

I C - The students sang the soulful song 'Teri Hai Zameen'.

I D - The children performed an action song 'Hallam Hallam Hathi' based on 'sanyunktakshar'.

I E - The students recited the poem 'Lalaji ki Pagdi' and presented a Hindi skit 'Sadak par Bail'.

I F - The children presented a shopping activity on money followed by the song 'Nani teri Morni ko'.

I G - The students did a role play and sang a song on ants. An interesting video on ants was also played.

I H - The age-old fairy tale Goldilocks and the Three Bears was narrated confidently by a group of children. The actions of the little storytellers were worth appreciating. They also recited the poem Water and 'Tarey' (stars).

Grand Assemblies

The Shishyans of I C presented a Hindi skit 'Naukar ke Kaarnamey' which depicted the blunders made by a servant. The little actors effectively brought out the comedy of the various situations.

In order to welcome their summer break, the children of I D chose to perform on the action song Sunny Sunny, the theme of which is summer holidays.

A much loved and peppy number 'Chatte Phatte' added more flavour to the enjoyment. The children of I H effortlessly synchronized their dance steps with the amazing beats of the song.

The Shishyans of Classes I A, I B, I F and I G chose Republic Day as the theme of their class assembly. Their delightful tableau represented the parade of the country's capital. The beauty of every state came alive through their vibrant folk dances. The overwhelming response of the audience certainly boosted the morale of our young performers.

Workshop on Safety Rules

Events in Class II

The young learners of Class II A presented a skit based on the parts of a plant which effortlessly conveyed the message that each part of a plant has an important role to play. This further made them understand that working together helps us to achieve beautiful things.

Emotions was the theme of the assembly presentation of Class II C. The children shared interesting information on the different emotions experienced by us. Related videos on human emotions were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience and the little performers. The presentation incorporated a delightful talk show by the children and one of their favourite songs 'If you're happy and you know'.

The class assembly of Class II D was based on the importance of prayer in our lives. The children began their presentation with an English and a Hindi prayer followed by a skit 'That's How We Pray'.

The skits presented by the students of Class II E conveyed the messages of helping others and having self control. The Boy and the Drum & The Monkeys and the Bananas were the two skits in which they participated. Their presentation ended with the song 'My Body makes all Kinds of Motion'.

A song, a skit and a dance performance were the highlights of the assembly presentation of II F. The Fisherman and his Wife was the skit that brought out a wonderful message on greed. They enjoyed singing Over in the Meadow and ended their assembly with a dance performance Shanker ji ka Damru Baje.

The class assembly of II G consisted of three skits and a song. As you sow, so shall you reap was the lesson they learnt through their first skit. The second skit portrayed that it is human beings who are responsible for creating trash monsters by spreading germs and filth all around. Their third skit was named Clean India, Green India which was based on cleanliness. The children ended their presentation with their favourite song It's a Small World After all.

The students of II C and II H performed skits on healthy eating habits and the importance of vegetables and trees. They chose to present their skits in the Hindi language and that made their message very simple and effective. They wound up their assembly with related song performances.

Responsibility was the theme of the class assembly of II H. They presented a skit, sang the song Peanut Butter Sandwich and danced on their favourite number Ek hi Thali ke Chatte Batte.

Full of excitement, the Shishyans of Class II set out to find places in the school where they could lend a helping hand. They helped to arrange books in the library and to clean their favourite place - the sandpit. They even enjoyed checking the taps and the supply of water!

Kaleidoscope (Sr. KG to Class II)

Towards the end of the session, a mega event Kaleidoscope was planned for the Shishyans of Sr. KG to Class II. Through this exciting activity, the children got an opportunity to participate in the activity of their choice. Card Making, Best out of Waste, Rangoli Making, Origami, Ikebana, Flameless Cooking and Jewellery Making were the activities to choose from. It was indeed heartening to see the little experts at work. Besides, a number of Shishyans were spotted exhibiting appreciable qualities like sharing, caring and making their friends comfortable.

Events in Classes III - V

The students of III E, IV A and IV C chose Republic Day and Makar Sankranti as the themes of their assembly presentation. The students of III E began the assembly with a poem. It was followed by the mime performance of IV A which depicted respect for our national flag. Three Colours was the song sung by the children of IV A. The students of IV C shared some relevant information on the Constitution of India and Fundamental Rights. This was followed by a lively harvest song and a dance performance. Arham Learns a Lesson was the name of the skit presented by the students of IV C which highlighted the importance of speaking in English. The assembly was wrapped up by the vibrant Bhangra performers of III E.

We the Shishyans was the talk show presented by the students of IV D. The topic of their discussion was The Importance of English Language. Their television show also incorporated beautiful videos on sharing and caring and the dangers of being friendly to strangers.

The Shishyans of III B merrily danced to the tunes of the song We Love you.

Celebrations
(Classes III - V)

Tiffin Party

The Shishyans of Class V, the senior most students of the junior wing bid adieu to the junior school in March. They carried mouth watering snacks, delicately packed in colourful tiffins. Their joy and excitement knew no bounds while they celebrated their good times with their educators and friends.

Farewell, dear children of Class V!

How could the children of classes III and IV be left out! They too had their much awaited tiffin party with their classmates and educators. What touched our hearts was their affection for our helpers - their loving didis and bhaiyas, to whom they served different snacks - properly laid out on plates!

Teacher Enrichment Programmes
(an initiative of the RINWIN Department)

In the month of February, a workshop on Mathematics was conducted by Ms. Komal from Jodo Gyan, New Delhi. All Math educators of the junior wing actively participated and shared their experiences with one another.

The month of April had two more workshops lined up for our educators. The renowned professor Dr. Bino Thomas from NIMHANS, Bengaluru was here with us to give an insight into the psychology of young children. He was accompanied by Ms. Shangmi Roel, a junior consultant at NIMHANS.

Professional Development Conclave was yet another workshop conducted by eminent resource persons Ms. Nikita Desai and Ms. Archana Todi from Riverside Learning Center, Ahmedabad.
