Vol 3

January – March

Namaste!

How time flies! We are all set to update you with all the events of the last trimester of the academic session 2016-17. The past three months have been quite happening, wherein the children enjoyed participating in the various sports events, inter school events, other in-house co-curricular activities and field trips along with the usual academic content. All in all, another memorable year has passed by, the memories of which will fill the tender minds for years to come. The educators, on the other hand, are pleased to see their students showing complete readiness for the next class.
