GLIMPSES OF BRITISH COUNCIL ASSEMBLIES

Exploring the World through Folktales

As part of the British Council Project, the story-tellers from Classes III & IV continued to enthrall their peers with their story telling skills and performances. Each story was enjoyed by the children . Such was the impact that the children were seen enacting various characters from these plays and stories.

National Symbols Across the World

The Students of Classes I & II concluded their British Council Project with the last assembly presentations where they shared information about their chosen countries with great ease and confidence. The assembly presentations included information on national symbol and their significance. Dances and skits showcasing information about the culture of the countries were part of these presentations.

CELEBRATIONS IN SCHOOL

Dressed up in colourful traditional wear the children enjoyed playing garba with their educators and friends on the 8th October, 2016. Everyone participated whole heartedly in the garba and made the event a huge success.

The students of different classes conducted special assembly sessions during the festivals to tell their peers about the customs, rituals and the stories behind the same. It was indeed a pleasure to hear the students speak with correct diction, pronunciation and confidence.

Shishukunj decided to involve the children in an Social Outreach Program. The students collected used /old clothes in good condition and sent them to the Young Indian Group who distributed them as per areas identified by them in and around the city.

The Shishyans in the Junior Wing will be celebrating Christmas with zeal .The educators have planned many events for them about the same.

Pratibimb and Anugoonj

The much awaited event of the school calendar “Pratibimb’ and “Anugoonj” were held on the 19th of November,2016 and 26thNovember,2016 respectively. Both were extremely successful .Around 700 children from Junior KG to Class V were part of the annual exhibition which showcased the teaching-learning process that happened in the various clubs . Street Plays , poem recitations , folk dances, games , live experiments and demonstrations were the highlights of the show. The parents and other visitors appreciated the exhibition a lot. Anugoonj had around 850 participants. Many entertaining items were part of the show. The first programme ‘The Vandana’ was a fusion of live singing and pure classical dancing based on the five elements of nature. The youngest members of the school danced to a wonderful medley of old songs in the item “Back to Bachpan” , a mime “Magic of Charlie , a Sufi Fusion dance , a folk dance on the famous song “Ekla Chalo”, a Hindi drama “Raja Ka Raaz” based on an Indian folktale were some more programmes of the grand show. Both Pratibimb and Anugoonj received immense praise .The parents sent emails and handwritten appreciation letters to express their delight .
