Subject: Summer Vacation Programme by National Museum of Natural History (NMNH), New Delhi

Dear Parent
Namaste

We are happy to inform you that the National Museum of Natural History (NMNH), New Delhi in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP-INDIA) is organizing a National Online Summer Vacation Programme for students of Classes VI – XII from May 22 to June 5, 2021.

NMNH-UNDP Summer Vacation Programme is a 10-day virtual programme for school students from Classes VI – XII. It will sensitize participants on key environmental issues over a wide range of subjects through online videos from leading educators and experts, as well as fun do-it-yourself activities and quizzes for a more meaningful engagement. The Programme will be launched on May 22, 2021. The online lectures will commence on May 24, 2021 and end on June 4, 2021. All registered students have to watch the lectures and respond to the quiz (if any) on the same day. However, there are no fixed timings to attend the lectures.

To enroll for this programme students need to register on the link given below latest by May 21, 2021.
